Beautiful homes may be seen on Carmel Valley tour Thursday

SPANISH ARCHITECTURE is dominant in the Russell Ranch home that is on the Carmel Valley Women's Club tour of Valley homes.

FLOWERING VINE graces the entrance to the Russell Ranch residence which will be on the Tour of the Valley homes sponsored by the Carmel Valley Women's Club.

A LEISURE LIFE is exemplified in the setting of the Robert E. McDonald home on Carmel Valley Road. It is included in the tour of Valley homes.

THE ENTRANCE to the Robert McDonald home on Carmel Valley Road, with the blossoms of Spring beginning their season of bloom.

UNIQUE IN DESIGN is the Carmel Valley Art Gallery and Crafts Center that is included in the tour of Valley homes.

Correction made on accident report

June Gillette was released last week from the Community Hospital where she had been since she was injured in an accident at Robles del Rio bridge.

It was previously reported that she jumped out of the car that hit her, but it was later learned that an unoccupied pick-up truck slipped its brake and began to roll, pinning her against the bridge.

New Carmel Valley Maps now available

The 1969 Carmel Valley Road Map, issued each year under the sponsorship of the Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club, are now available.

Any business which would like a supply of the new maps may call at the Blue Sky Lodge, Lou Gardner said this week.

The maps have been updated showing the location of all roads, points of interest, and most Valley businesses.

Tourists and visitors to the Valley appreciate the maps, which are free.

EVERYBODY READS THE OUTLOOK!

SHE USED HER SEAT BELT: Northbound across the Robles del Rio Bridge, a car driven by Miss Lucille Erdle of Calle de los Agrinemsors, Robles del Rio, skidded in the rain and overturned against the bank of the road. She was transported by Red Cross ambulance manned by Carmel Valley Volunteer Fire Department to Community Hospital where she was checked for minor injuries and released. Use of her seat belt prevented further injuries according to ambulance attendants.

THE TOWN CRIER

By Rosemary Clifford

FIRST RATTLESNAKE: Sporting eight buttons, the first reported rattler of the season made his appearance at the James Friday residence in the Los Tulares area Sunday. He was quickly dispatched to join the other six that Mr. Friday has killed around his home the last three years.

TRYING TO TELL US SOMETHING: The Rogers and Hammerstein Library in new York issued the play "Oklahoma" to three schools in the area to be presented at very nearly the same time, or overlapping times.

Salinas had the first crack at it. Now Carmel High School will present its last production of the play this weekend. Last in a super-presentation is the Naval Post Graduate School, which has generously assisted in the High School ticket sales and production.

It is either a lack of knowledge of geography, or New York thinks California should know more about Oklahoma.....rather rough on the P.G. school with a $6,000 production!

LITTLE OLD LADY LIBRARIANS who presided over the hallowed halls of silence must now take a back seat with the new look that has come to Monterey County's five leading libraries.

Tied together with teletype service, and special phone lines, instant library service is close at hand with a 24 hour availability on books now.

One library card is all that is needed to check out a book at any of the county libraries, and one patron even brags of being able to use his driver's license when he lost his card.

Books may be borrowed from one library in the system and returned to another.

A NEW LOOK will invade the Village Library next week according to Mrs. Joan Ray, librarian, when new book shelves go up, and soon an outside drop will become available for after-hour book returns.

NO SCHOOL BELLS: Like white rats in a maze regulated to hunger pangs with a bell, school children have been responding to the noisy jar of the b-r-r-r-ing for years.

This will all be replaced by 20-minute modules at Middle School to create a "calmer campus" according to school authorities.

But how can you tell when a module is over without a bell to remind you???

DR. ED MARCUCCI gave the Comsat people a special remembrance on the occasion of the dedication of the "Earth Station" last Friday.

At a luncheon held at the Carmel Valley Golf & Country Club, Marcucci gave Dr. Joseph V. Charyk, president of Communications Satellite Corp., a small can of fresh, clean, Carmel Valley air.

As chairman of the County Planning Commission, Marcucci said he couldn't be happier with the advent of Comsat. It is a fine new industry that pollutes absolutely nothing.

There were about 100 special guests, many of them dignitaries and Comsat contractors, present at the lunch, which followed the dedication of the super-modern "Earth Station" near Jamesburg.

Bob Kvenild, C.V. chamber of commerce president, also spoke a few well-chosen words to the gathering.

John Scroggs, station manager, presided at the luncheon, as well as the dedication.

Congressman Burt Talcott of Salinas was the main speaker and also tripped a signal which cut the ribbon – a signal which went to Australia and back via satellite in exactly .6 of a second.

CRACK SHOT: Mary Hoisington, the only girl Special Investigator for the Alcohol Control Board in San Benito, Monterey and Santa Cruz counties, recently out-shot the men and scored highest at the Milpitas Pistol Range. She has been with the board for five years, and makes her home with husband, Charlie on Middle Canyon Road.

Open Letter to Little League Parents:

Per usual, all the little leaguers were met by the same familiar faces on opening day. Some had been busy making ready the ballfield and snack booth as well as others who for weeks have been busy ordering equipment, uniforms, setting up tryouts and numerous other things that go into operating a little league for a group of really great kids. There were also the FEW interested parents in the stands, looking forward to watching their sons play ball again.

I sometimes wonder what would happen if these familiar faces should suddenly disappear. I'll venture to say that there would be a lot of unhappy disappointed boys. These special parents have taken time out of busy schedules to share and take pride in what their sons accomplish during this baseball season.

It's discouraging enough for the same small group to have the full burden and responsibility of running the league, having to beg many parents to help out in some small way and getting negative responses instead of enthusiasm, but the really tragic thing, is to see some of these boys on the field doing something constructive and worthwhile, playing their hearts out without having his Mom or Dad in the stands giving him a smile or word of encouragement, to make it, or their very existance worthwhile. If we as parents don't do this, who will?

So for God's sake, and your own, take a few hours of your time each week, and willingly so, to be with them. You'll be making happy memories for all of you. In a few short years, they'll be grown and gone and then there will be left only HAPPY MEMORIES or REGRETS. Which will it be for you and your son?

Mary Thystrup

SOMEBODY

Somebody built this granite road,
Somebody bridged that canyon's yawn;
Even the house where I abode
Someone built before I was born.

The ship, the train, the car, the plane
We ride was made for future use,
And later generations gain
From what we in our turn produce.

Since time began this has been so:
Each generation plans upon
The heritage for those we know
Will follow after we are gone.

This is the plan, these are the rules:
We build to crown what we've achieved ---
The bridges, roads, the shop, the schools ---
The past and future interweaved.

Thus daily we subtract or add
And climb still higher or descend.
What's done today, for good or bad,
Affects our children in the end.

'Born Yesterday-' to open at Studio Theatre on May 9

Next on view at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant in Carmel is the Garson Kanin comedy "Born Yesterday", opening May 9.

Judy Holliday starred in the original production which ran on Broadway for four years and subsequently received an Oscar for her role in the movie. As the unforgettable Billie Dawn she played the dumb chorine content to be the mistress of an amoral tycoon until her eyes were opened by an idealistic magazine writer.

The late Paul Douglas gave an almost frightening interpretation of the corrupt Harry Brock who bought senators as readily as junk yards, while Gary Merrill portrayed the writer who taught Billie to exercise her innate shrewdness in a final confrontation with Brock. In the screen version, the male leads were played by Broderick Crawford and William Holden.

"Born Yesterday" belongs to a school of comedy that mixes solid punch with laugh lines that appeal as much to the intellect as the funnybone. Author Kanin has been involved with the theatre as playwright and director most of his life, but none of his work has exceeded "Born Yesterday" in popularity.

After its May 9 opening, "Born Yesterday" will run Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights through June 21. The Studio production is directed by Dave Kirk with setting and lighting by Bob Evans, Jr.

Reservations for dinner and show or show alone may be made at 624-1661 or 624-2321.

Scandia Restaurant in National Travel Guide

The Scandia Restaurant, Carmel, owners Arne and Dorthe Kippenes, has won a listing in the 11th edition of the Mobil Travel Guide, the country's best known national travel guidebook, it has been announced by the Guide's editors.

Establishments are listed and rated on a one to five star basis in the seven volune Travel Guide which has been compared to the gamed Guide-Michelin by travel experts. The books will be available in bookstores and Mobil stations in May.

To win a listing like Scandia did win in the Mobil Guide, an establishment must be personally inspected by an impartial trained inspector who reports his findings to an editorial board. Mobil has given complete independence to this group in deciding on listings and ratings.

Each of the seven regional editions gives valuable information on local history, sightseeing, amusements and advice to travelers.

The Carmel Unified School District insured the district for the next three years with the Carmel Association of Insurance Agents at a meeting of the board of trustees last week.

Costing the district $17,761 for the first year, the total will be adjusted the two remaining years to reflect changes in the automotive policy caused by increasing the number of vehicles or other reasons.

The district received five bids for its insurance business.

ADOPT A PET DURING MAY is the plea of these two playful kittens. SPCA director Gwen May urges families to adopt a pet this month only if they can give it a good home and adequate care. "Be Kind to Animals" week is being observed nationally starting Sunday.

'Kindness to Pets' starts Sunday

With a warning that animals be kept safe at home or under close control at all times as a precaution against so-called 'Petnappers', the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals launches their 55th national "Be Kind to Animals" week starting Sunday.

"Animal shelters, police departments and other agencies receive thousands of calls daily concerning animals which are lost, injured, neglected and abused," according to Gwendolyn May, Director of the SPCA Animal Shelter at La Vega Verde on the Salinas-Monterey Highway.

The officials of the SPCA have issued timely advice for dog owners as follows:

1. Always keep your dog under control when walking it, and safe at home at all other times.

2. It's dangerous to leave animals in parked cars. Many are reported stolen, others escape through open windows, and on warm days, the inside of a parked car can turn into an "oven" in a manner of minutes.

3. Your dog should wear a collar with suitable identification and any tags or licenses which are required by law.

4. When pets are ill, seek professional advice from a veterinarian.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mac Millan are the parents of a daughter, Elizabeth Laura, born April 22, at the Community Hospital.

A cabaret-buffet featuring entertainment by "The Cats Augmented Fourth", popular vocal and piano team of Toni Crowley and Dale Price from Los Gatos, will be held Monday at the Clock Garden Restaurant.

The special charity performance by these talented artists in their first public appearance on the Monterey Peninsula is being given to benefit the Monterey Institute for Speech & Hearing building fund.

In observance of "Hearing and Speech", the party is sponsored by the Special Projects Committee of the MISH Auxiliary. Chairman is Mrs. Joseph R. Reeves.

Doors open at 6:00 p.m. The first concert is at 7:00, and the main performance is at 9:00.

The Clock Garden Restaurant is being converted into a cabaret theater for the event.

The Monterey Institute for Speech & Hearing is a unique organization, combining both clinical and research activities. The Institute and its Children's House in Carmel Valley serve over 1,000 persons monthly who come from Monterey County, central California, and from states throughout the U.S.

Tickets for the buffet-cabaret may be obtained by calling Mrs. Reeves at 624-1942, Mrs. William Breen at 373-4090.

BABS RICHARDSON as Opal, holds Sweet Thursday, famed Carmel Valley cat, in "Everybody Loves Opal" which concludes its run this weekend at the Studio Theatre-Restaurant in Carmel. Sweet Thursday, owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison of the Carmel Valley Inn, originally entered the show as an understudy, but her interpretation of the role was so outstanding that popular demand insisted she play all 20 performances. The Harrisons maintain that Sweet Thursday has enjoyed every minute of it, especially the applause. – Richard Amrhein Photo

Jazz Festival in Music Hall

A Monterey Peninsula College jazz festival for high school and college students of the Peninsula and surrounding areas is planned for Saturday in the MPC music hall.

The festival will begin at 1 p.m. with a brass clinic to be conducted by Bud Brisbois, well-known high register trumpet artist who has recorded with Stan Kenton, Billy May, Ralph Carmichael, Shorty Rogers, Pete King and other greats.

During the afternoon, there will be performances by the MPC Jazz Ensemble conducted by Dan Haerle, by the College of the Redwoods Stage Band and possibly other junior college groups.

A free public concert played by the MPC Jazz Rehearsal Band, an evening group led by Haerle, will start at 8 p.m. in the music hall. Featured guest artist will be Bud Brisbois, his appearance made possible by the Monterey Jazz Festival as part of a new program.

TOP DRIV

Twelve years of exciting road racing history at Monterey's famed Laguna Seca Raceway have been sandwiched in between victories by two men competing in the May 3-4 Laguna Seca – Royal 76 Championships.

Pasadena's John Cannon and Seattle's Pete Lovely are among entries for the upcoming debut of SCCA's Continental Championship series for open-wheel, single seat Formula A cars at Laguna Seca.

Winner of the Riverside Continental Grand Prix in an Eagle-Chevy last Sunday, Cannon was the last man to enter the victory circle at Laguna Seca, following his win last October in the Monterey Grand Prix.

Lovely, sixth place finisher at Riverside in a Lotus-Cosworth-Ford, holds the distinction of winning the first race ever run on the 1.9-mile Laguna Seca asphalt.

In November of 1957, Lovely made his first trip to victory lane in a 1.9 Ferrari which averaged 80.2 mph for the 100-mile speedfest. He repreated the performance in June of 1962 by bringing a Lotus 19 under the checkered flag, averaging 84.6 mph.

However, as men and machines continue to improve, Lovely's earlier winning times won't come close to earning him a position in the starting field for the $10,000 championship run at Laguna Seca.

More than 35 Formula A Indy-500 prototypes are expected to compete for 30 starting spots in the May racing spectacular. An average speed of slightly over 100 mph on the tight, nine-turn track might earn a spot – in the last row.

Lothar Motschenbacher of Beverly Hills in a McLaren-Chevy, Tony Adamowich of Winton, Conn. in an Eagle-Chevy; Jerry Hanson of Minneapolis in a McLaren-Chevy; and George Wintersteen of Villanova, Pa. in a Lola-Chevy. All will be among the aces competing at Laguna Seca May 3-4.

Also on tap for the weekend of racing are a $5000 race for the smaller-engined, but speedy Formula B and C cars, and a full slate of sports racing and production car contests for SCCA's amateur drivers.

With accessory money upping the professional jackpot to nearly $25,000, enough loot is on the line to lure the finest driving talent in the country to the Monterey Peninsula for the Laguna Seca – Royal 76 Championships, May 3-4.

Tickets for the racing extravaganza, expected to attract more than 20,000 motor sports enthusiasts, are on sale at all Macy's stores and at many Valley locations, including Marzi/Monterey Pottery, Cate Electric, and Carmel Valley Texaco.

UNDER THE OAKS & AMONG THE CACTI

By Mildred Hattan — 659—2468

Mrs. Jennings B. Seiver, who arrived in January to celebrate the 90th birthday of her sister, Mrs. J.B. (Verena) Franklin, left on Sunday for Los Angeles to spend a week or two with nephews and grandsons and their families before returning to her home in Austin, Minnesota. Her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Naslund, who drove her south, hope that they have persuaded her to become a permanent winter resident of the Valley.

In addition to her visit on Flight Road, Mrs. Seiver, who is approaching her 80th birthday, accompanied Florence and Carl on a recent trip to Alaska to visit Florence's brother, Arthur Franklin.

On the drive north, every mountain peak—Lassen, Shasta, Hood, Helen, and even the elusive Ranier were viewed at their picture post card best.

The trio left their car at Auburn with Florence's brother, Ben Franklin who took them to the airport. Thinking that they were safely Alaska-bound, he left them for what eventually became a TWENTY SIX hour wait for plane repairs.

The flight to Sitka was a one hour and 55 minute anti-climax after the lodging and meals provided by the Alaska Airline for their inconvenienced passengers.

In Sitka they found "shirt sleeve weather" with only some snow banks remaining from the winter's record snowfall. They covered the 14 miles of Sitka's highways, visited the ferry boat, Totem Pole Park, the pulp mill and were particularly impressed with Mr. Franklin's new ultra modern store which replaces the one burned a few years ago in a fire which destroyed most of Sitka. Constructed of concrete, the lower level is a fashionable department store, the next a mall surrounded by an assortment of businesses, and topped with a floor of apartments.

Reporting to the airport for their departure flight, they discovered that their plane was once again having mechanical difficulties in Seattle, so the Alaska Airline sent a Convair which took them on a breath-taking (from both scenery and fright) flight to Juneau in between mountains and through canyons.

All the while the Valleyites were grateful that they had taken the drink of Indian water for protection. There is a superstition in Sitka that if you lie face down and drink from the river you will return again and as their small craft skimmed the rugged terrain there were times that they just weren't too sure!

Thus ended the "twelve day and two hour" adventures of the Naslunds and their delightful traveling companion, Mrs. Seiver.

A scavenger hunt through the fields at Sycamore Farm was the highpoint of the party celebrating the 8th birthday of Roy Kaminske, Jr. The children played games and enjoyed refreshments including a birthday cake baked by his sister, Suzie. Invited by Roy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kaminske, Sr. were Jody Moore, Jeff Glascow, Chris Anderson, Steve Draper, Joey Sturgill, Ron Carter and Roy's sister, Mary.

Kent and Ashley Swanson are enjoying a two week visit with special house guests from Nebraska, their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Swanson, who are escaping to the Valley sunshine after a winter which has been written up as "the worst" in Mr. Swanson's farm records.

Their farm is located at Hooper and in addition to recalling pleasant visits there with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Swanson, the children are assisting their mid-western relatives to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on April 30th.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Paddock of Lower Circle who are parents of a son born Monday, April 21, at the Community Hospital. The newest mascot at the C.V. Fire House, where his dad is a volunteer fireman, weighed 5 lbs. 9-1/2 oz. His name, Elbridge Gerry, is for a great grandfather who was vice president under James Madison and one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. His impressive link with history does not phase his very proud grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Fike of Lower Circle who refers to Elbridge Gerry Paddock as "Butch!" His maternal grandmother is Mrs. Wilma Fike of the Mid-Valley. The baby's sister, Theresa Ann, will be 3 in August.

"The Phantom Oak Moth" received an exclusive tip too late for the "Earthquake Edition" but it might be wise to clip and save for future quake alarms. A warm Valley welcome to Mrs. Joanne Taguchi who has recently purchased the home on Village Drive formerly owned by Mrs. Ida Duncan. Since the home is to be occupied 'til the end of August by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Powers, Mrs. Taguchi and her children, Julie 10 and Kevin 8 are making the Valley Lodge their temporary quarters. A recent resident of Monterey Park, near Alhambra, Mrs. Taguchi is a civilian nurse at the Naval Post Graduate School.

Twenty-five ladies attended the benefit bridge and canasta party sponsored by the Guild of the Carmel Valley Community Chapel last week at the Fellowship Hall. Mrs. Doris Bundbard and Mrs. Shirley Mills were co-hostesses and selected a "springy" color scheme of avacado and yellow carried right thru to the dessert with a delicious lemon YELLOW pie!

The tables were centered with white egg cups filled with arrangements of pussy willows, dock and yellow daisies. These were presented as table prizes to Mrs. Lee Hildebrandt, Mrs. Shepherd Peterson, Mrs. Ida Duncan, Mrs. Ruby Marrs, Mrs. Hazel Carp and Mrs. Louella Ollason.

High for afternoon bridge was Mrs. Ruby Marrs, second Mrs. Lee Hildebrandt, and a canasta first to Mrs. Hazel Carp and a second to Mrs. Louella Ollason.

Bob Goepfert, one of the leaders of the Boy Scout Camporee held a couple of weeks ago at the "Rauber Tract", gave the boys their instructions for the Nature Scavenger Hunt, note books in which to record their findings as well as pressed bits of plant life, and a final note of caution that the boys were NOT to touch anything even faintly resembling poison oak, only to sketch a cluster of leaves so that they could be properly credited with the identification.

Hours passed, the troops returned, and in checking their note books to find how many of the requirements had been fulfilled, Bob was horrified to find numerous books containing a page on which was neatly scotch-taped a sprig of .... so-help-me-Hanna .... the plague of Valley Sun Worshippers, POISON OAK!!!!

Benefit Bridge and Canasta Party sponsored last week by St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church. Mrs. Heidi Von Pagenhardt entertained the ladies at her West Carmel Valley Road home assisted by Mrs. Joan Morris and Mrs. Kathryn Walker.

Everyone knows Kathryn's ability to move mountains, but this time she even coerced Mother Nature out of some genuine raindrops to add to her theme! The delighted winners of table prizes were able to brave the spring showers in new rain bonnets which had been attractively wrapped in a pastel net of pink, yellow and aqua. Miniature Japanese parasols and flowers were tucked in the ribbon ties.

The high in bridge was awarded to Toby Craven, second to Billie Anker; first in canasta to Bertha Hildebrand, and second to Vera Stokes.

The birthday of Mrs. Elsie Siemens was celebrated during the dessert hour by the ladies who presented her with a card and gift. The hostesses served birthday cake to the guests and Mrs. Siemens wished on the candles of a special cake presented by her daughter, Mrs. Richard T. Sinclair. The next party is scheduled for May 28 at the Lupine Lane home of Mrs. Phillip Mothersill.

Spring is a wonderful time to return to the Valley, decided Mrs. Hixie Boon as she walked through her blossom filled orchards at Sycamore Farm after a four-month absence. Mrs. Boon has been a guest of her sister, Mrs. John Langley, who lives in Camp Hill, Alabama.

During her stay she learned of "Yankee Cousins" living in Illinois and accepted their invitation for a visit there. It seems that during the Civil War, her grandfather was captured, later granted amnesty and released in Illinois having promised that he would never return again to the South.

His grandchildren are now farmers in the corn and soybean country of Illinois and are researching old court house records in an attempt to locate any living relatives. Mrs. Boon returned from Chicago via train, the City of San Francisco.

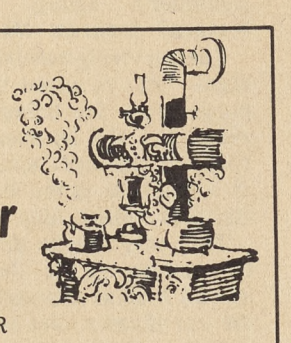
Joe Hitchcock, one of the Valley's favorite pioneer residents, is a patient in room 10-2 at the Monterey General Hospital in Salinas. Contrary to instructions during Joe's illness last Fall, he may now receive flowers and would surely appreciate a card from the many friends he misses seeing during his daily pilgrimage to the Village. Get well, SOON, Joe!

Cookery Corner



BY MRS. B.C. FORRESTER

If you really like to cook, anything is grist to your mill. For instance:

A traveller to our shores at the close of the Civil War "views with agitation the possibly injurious effect of the banana tree, affording food without labor" to the recently freed slaves.

He continues "the terrible results of the plentiful possession of this tree are seen in Ceylon, at Panama, in the coast lands of Mexico, in New Zealand. No practice of Christianity can be got from a people who possess this fatal plant. The much abused cocoa palm cannot come near it as a devil's agent....the palm needs some labor. The banana grows as a weed, hangs down its branches of ripe, tempting fruit into your lap as you lie in its cool shade."

Ed. Note: Why all the agitation? It sounds good to me. But my traveller continues: "You can eat it raw or fried every day of your life without tiring of its taste; without harm to your health... In the banana groves of Florida and Lousiana there lurks much trouble! Much danger to the American Free States!"

So much for him and his unrealistic apprehensions. The banana remains and grows in prestige as a health food, often on diets, and of excellent taste. You don't have to fry it either. Try the following:

BAKED BANANAS

Put required number of UNPEELED bananas in a slow oven (350). Bake until skins are brown. Take fruit out of skins and put in cereal bowl; sweeten with desired amount of maple syrup; eat as breakfast.

BAKED BANANAS – PEELED

Remove skins from 6 bananas; cut in halves lengthwise; place in shallow baking dish; make a syrup of 1/3 cup of sugar and 1/2 cup of water. Add 2 tsp. of lemon juice and 1 tbsp. of butter. Pour half of this syrup over bananas. Bake in slow oven for 20 minutes, basting with remaining syrup.

BANANA CREAM SHERBET

1 tsp plain granulated gelatin
1 tbsp cold water
3/4 cups sweetened condensed milk
2 egg whites whipped stiff
1-1/2 cup sieved banana pulp
1/3 cup granulated sugar
3 tbsp lemon juice
1/8 tsp salt

Let gelatin stand 5 min in the cold water, then melt it over steam in top of double boiler, and stir in the condensed milk.

Add bananas and lemon juice. Fold in whipped whites. Add salt.

Transfer to freezing tray of refrigerator. Freeze 2 hours. Remove and beat until light and fluffy. Return to refrigerator until firm. Allow at least 4 hours.

Serve plain or with fruit cocktail mixture.

The good old days.

What was so good about scrubbing clothes, stoking stoves, chopping wood, toting ice, belting rugs and pushing brooms?

It is one thing to admire the past, but quite another to put up with it.

Now you can relax while freezers freeze, cookers cook, dryers dry, washers wash, heaters heat, mixers mix, blenders blend and timers time. Gas and electric servants do most of your work for you.

We can't claim credit for inventing gas and electricity, but we can claim credit for good service at low rates.

We do all we can to save you from the "good old days."

IT'S LITTLE

Opening day ceremonies saw the managers and coaches standing with their teams on the field, as Rev. Johnson recited a prayer. The National Anthem was sounded with the raising of the flag. Little League season is on its way again - - - -

The traditional first game between the Lions and Volunteers proved to be a pitching dual as Jeff Hall struck out 18 batters and allowed only one hit, to lead the Lions to a 1-0 victory. Bob Egli and Sergio Villareal proved their pitching ability by holding the Lions to only 4 hits.

Much action ripped the second game as the Giants edged the Tigers 10-9. Receiving the win for the Giants was Bill Neidinger who allowed 9 runs with 15 hits. Losing pitcher Dorne Colburn gave up 10 runs on 7 hits. In the 3rd inning, an in-the-park home run was hit by Mark Lyons (T). Triples were chalked up by Neidinger (G), Steve Savoldi (G), Greg Fries (T), and Jim Copsey(T). Coming thru with doubles were Jan Craig (T), Savoldi and Copsey.

Ken Hohler sparked the Giants with a double in the 4th, bringing home their 2nd run. In the 6th inning the Giants threatened again with Mike Busick's triple followed by Steve Savoldi's double, collecting another run. David Morris was the winning pitcher, suffering the loss was Bill Neidinger.

Kim Kvenild (G) robbed Sergio Villareal (V) of an extra base as he made an outstanding running catch in left field.

The Lions came thru with their 3rd straignt win as they felled the Tigers 8-3. Winning pitcher was Dave Morris over Greg Fries. Good hitting marked both teams as Mark Siino (L) lead the way with an in-the-park home run, triple, double and 2 singles. New members introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Glynn L. Prine, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wesley. Announced as new members, but not present were the John Klumps, and the Nicholas Brockmans.

WINS BOOTS: Dr. Otto Schwalb was winner of a pair of boots given by the Carmel Valley Trail and Saddle Club when they held their Spring dinner dance Friday at the Rippling River Resort. He is being presented with his prize by Mrs. Robert Angell, social chairman of the club.

Camping grounds unuseable now

Twenty-five percent of the drainage done to Los Padres National Forest roads by the heavy winter rains has been repaired, according to Forest Engineer Phil Russell.

Campgrounds along the Carmel River drainage are unuseable it was disclosed in a recent report.

Russell said that contracts have now been issued to many local contractors for 25 pieces of earth moving heavy equipment to further extend the work already done on Forest roads.

In addition to the equipment, Los Padres is receiving temporary assistance from 13 Engineering Technicians from eight other National Forests in California.

These people will provide necessary supervision for the extra work being done.

DAMAGED TRAILS

Damage to trails, campgrounds and debris dams in many cases will require additional time to repair. Forest Supervisor William H. Hansen said that opening of the Forest roads will provide access for fire protection forces this summer, enable the Forest to better assess the total storm damage and provide better opportunities for public use of Forest areas.

The public is reminded that although additional areas are now open, there are still areas closed and others undergoing construction.

Before making plans to enter the Forest, it is strongly recommended that Forest visitors contact the nearest Ranger District Headquarters for up-to-date information.

FOR YOU

just because it's Spring, Elizabeth Arden has combined The Beauty Sampler with a gift of a full-size lipstick.

In a neat, pink case you will find: Skin Deep Milky Cleanser, Skin Lotion, Velva Moisture Film, Beauty Sleep, and Eye Beauty Cream.

Then — you have your choice of Auburn Frost Light or Auburn Frost Dark lipstick in a special pink case. Both for $5.00.

The Beauty Sampler is happy at home, but it loves to travel in your cosmetic case, or even in your favorite large purse.
